Residential real estate

Whether you are a first-time home buyer, investor, or simply searching for a home to create a lifetime of memories in, Firehouse Team has the experience, the network, and the dedication to make this experience stress-free and comfortable.

Find your new home

Let's make this easy for you.

What's on your "must have" list? Perhaps a spacious backyard for the dog and kids, or maybe the simple convenience of an attached garage. Whatever you're looking for you, we'll help you every step of the way.

Sell your home

We understand selling your home can be an emotional experience.

That's why the Firehouse Team of real estate experts works to make sure you get the top dollar for your home in the most efficient manner possible.

We'll implement creative marketing strategies to get your home in front of as many plausible buyers as possible.

Further, we know your time is precious, so we're not going to waste it by being an inconvenience to you. We work, so you don't have to.

Commercial real estate

Firehouse Team's commercial real estate division works throughout the greater Southern California region; its core disciplines include:

- Multi-family investment properties
- Industrial
- Office leasing
- Investment sales
- Retail services
- Hospitality
- Senior citizen housing
- Non-profit and municipal acquisitions
- Land sales acquisition

If you're a business owner seeking office space, we can help.

Recent economic activity has impacted small businesses significantly, resulting in a large increase in vacancies throughout Southern California.

We'll leverage your buying power to negotiate better terms and acquire premier properties — ultimately, working collaboratively to find the perfect commercial space.

About Firehouse Team

Firehouse Team is exactly that — a team of experienced professionals, each representing a unique transactional discipline that makes your real estate experience effective, seamless, and hassle-free.

Each member of our team has been selected based on their proven and exemplary knowledge in their respective field, their unrelenting integrity, and most importantly, their steadfast dedication to you — our client.

How we support the community

A portion of Firehouse Team proceeds are donated to the Firefighter Cancer Support Network, a group dedicated to the needs of firefighters and their families who have been diagnosed with cancer.
